TAX SALE TO BE HELD ON JANUARY 26th

Council Sanctions Date And Authorizes Advertising of Lands in Areas -- Sale to Held at Town Hall

The last meeting of the old council was held in the council chamber last Monday evening, and as very little business came before the meeting it was a very short and quiet one.

Mayor Bost was in the chair, and the following councillors were present: Ireland, Devitt, Oates, Havelton and Crowe.

On motion of Councillors Lavelle and Ireland the action of the Mayor and Clerk in setting the date for the tax sale for January 26th, in applying for titles and in advertising the sale, was confirmed.

Moved by Councillor Ireland, seconded by Councillor Crowe, that the action of the secretary-treasurer re the communication from Perry Company, Hamilton, be confirmed. Carried unanimously. This letter asked for a reduction in the price of bonds and the secretary answered to the effect that the request could not be considered but that the council would consider any offer made.

Returning Officer Henderson submitted his report to the council giving the result of the election for the town held on December 13th. The following were the successful candidates: Messrs. Lyliatt, Lavelle, Ireland and Crowe.

The council confirmed the action of the water committee in engaging the services of George Murray for the pumping station in succession to G. Murray, on motion of Councillors Crowe and Devitt.

After a few small accounts were passed and ordered paid, the council adjourned.

Self Denial And Pen- itence at St. Ambrose

By the action of the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the prince of Canada, Friday, December 31st, will be observed throughout the Empire as a day of self-denial and penitence for the nation and empire. Sunday, January 1st, the first Sunday in the New Year, will also be set aside as a day of solemn reflection to Almighty God for thankful recognition for mercies vouchsafed in the past. In accordance with the request of the Dominion of Canada, attention will also be drawn to the work and needs of the Patriotic Fund.

In compliance with the above it is hoped that a great effort will be made on the part of all Christians and of all loyal Britons, to make those days the occasion of sincere devotion and to partake in the special services arranged. On Friday, December 31st, there will be a special solemn service at 7.30 p. m. to which all are earnestly invited. On Sunday next there will be special services throughout the day, and in the morning morning there will be an appropriate sermon, and full particulars of some of the church notices.

Will Hold Week of United Prayer

For over 50 years the churches throughout the world have observed the first week of the New Year to united prayer. The unity of the denominations has thus been shown in the unity of their allegiance to the same Lord, desire in the same petition for the success of His Kingdom, faith in the same divine Word, and even doctrine concerning the essential of human salvation.

Wm McLean, Redcliff Seriously Wounded

In the list of Canadian casualties published last Wednesday appears the name of Wm McLean, another Redcliff boy who went out with the 3rd C. M. E. McLean lived here for about two years prior to the outbreak of the war and had been working at the carpenter trade here when he enlisted. Shortly after coming here he built two dwelling houses in the south end of town and lived in one of them himself. He is a single man about 30 years of age and has but one sister, who is a missionary in India. McLean is mentioned as seriously wounded but no particulars as to the nature of his wounds have come to hand. We understand that one of them is in a hospital in Boulogne, France.

Redcliff has another Mr. McLean now in training with the first in Edmonton. He is also a carpenter and was a member of the McLeachan & McLean.

Successful Xmas Tree By Presbyterians S.S.

The Sabbath school of the Presbyterian church held a concert and Christmas Tree festival on Christmas Eve. The program of the concert is too long for remarks on its individual items here. The young people of the church and their parents distinguished themselves by their recitations, instrumental solos, dialogues and vocal solos--24 separate pieces. The program was well planned and the audience which crowded the church. Each pupil received at the close a packet of oranges (the gift of Dr. and Mrs. Storer) and a bag of candy. All were delighted with the success of the entertainment.

Closing Exercises at School Much Enjoyed

The closing exercises held at the school last Thursday afternoon attracted quite a large gathering of parents and other grown people, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the programs put on by the children in the different classes.

In the lower rooms the children gave a number of choruses, recitations and dialogues appropriate for the Christmas occasion. In the higher rooms the program consisted of debates and dialogues. In both the work was exceedingly well done and reflected great credit on both teachers and pupils.

St. Ambrose S.S. Hold Christmas Festival

The annual school Christmas Tree Celebration was held on Wednesday evening in the parish hall. Quite a crowd turned out and the school looked very pretty with its usual decorations of flags, stockings and other dainties. Mr. George Abbott made a most admirable Santa Claus with his new suit and long grey beard.

As it is cold refreshments were served and it certainly was a pleasure to see the youngsters hunking into the various kinds of cakes, etc., on the table.

Then Santa Claus got busy and handed out the gifts. He was assisted by the Rev. J. C. Brown and it was great to hear the various gifts of delight as the youngsters opened their parcels.

An interval was called, during which songs and recitations, etc., were given by the children. After this the prizes were handed out to those for attendance and special marks. After toasted-pop corn had been handed out and the singing of the National Anthem, the festival was brought to a close. Those of honor are due to Mr. Fred Courtall, who generously donated the whole of the candy; to Dr. Storer, who gave two cases of toasted pop corn; to Dr. Brown, who presented the prizes for the best attendance and special merit.

MASONS INSTALL OFFICERS.

The installation of officers took place in the Masonic lodge room last Tuesday evening when the newly elected officers for Quarry Lodge were installed into their respective offices. Brothers Geo. Murray, C. Brown and J. E. Elliot, three Grand Lodge officers, were present and conducted the ceremony. There were also a number of visiting brothers from outlying precincts for the occasion.

ROLLING MILLS ADD NEW MACHINERY TO THE PLANT HERE

Fifty More Men to be Added to The Staff At Once -- When Finishing Furnace is Installed Another 50 Men Will be Added

ALSO TO START NUT & BOLT PLANT

Machinery For This Will be Installed As Soon As Possible -- Expect to Have Staff of 200 Men in All by Next Spring

For the past nine months the Redcliff Rolling Mills has been one of the busiest places in town but the present indications are that it will not only be one of the busiest industries in Redcliff but also one of the busiest in Canada.

When this mill opened up for business nine months ago there was a promising outlook because of the fact that competing firms in the old country were handicapped on account of the war, as the output of their mills was required for home consumption. At the time advanced prospects were more encouraging. There was a growing demand for the materials manufactured at the mills here and as this mill is turning out material equal to that of any mill in Eastern Canada and superior to any manufactured in the west, it had no difficulty in securing a market for its products. As a result the Redcliff Rolling Mills soon became taxed to its utmost to supply the demand.

The time has now come, however, when it is necessary to increase both the staff and machinery in order that the plant here may be in a position to supply the rapidly increasing demand. With this in mind the management has just made a contract to add 50 additional men to the staff on the second of next month. This will mean that commencing at last time 50 additional men will be added to the pay roll, making in all a staff of about 100 men.

It is also the intention of the management to install new machinery at once and the first piece to be added will be another finishing furnace. When this is put in action it will mean that another 50 men will be put on, so that by spring the Redcliff Rolling Mills will be employing at least 150 men, for the rolling mills themselves will also be installing the necessary machinery for the manufacturing of nuts and bolts, and it is expected that this machinery will also be in operation early in the spring.

When all this additional machinery is in operation it is safe to estimate that the Redcliff Rolling Mills will employ at least 200 men.

This mill is one of the most modern equipped in Canada and is turning out material second to none on this continent. At the present time--owing to the geographical position and cheap fuel--this mill is in a position to supply the demand for all Western Canada, and the manner in which the orders have been coming during the past few months is ample proof that their output is giving satisfaction to the customer.

Since the above was written we have been informed that it may only be a matter of a very short time when it will be necessary to run the mill night and day. When this is done it will mean that the figures given above as to the number of men to be employed will be just doubled, as it will mean two complete crews.

GLASS PLANT TO OPEN UP ON JAN. 10th

Will Start Making Glassware With Staff of Over 100 Men--A Busy Season is Expected

Everything is now in readiness at the Dominion Glass Plant here for operations on a big scale on January 10th. Several car loads of raw materials are already in store, the furnaces have been repaired and fired and already skilled men are commencing to arrive from the east.

The plant will open up with a staff of 110 men and boys; Twenty of these will be skilled men from the east to take charge of the different departments and the balance will be men from town who were engaged in this plant when it closed down last year.

As the stock in all lines manufactured in this plant is now almost exhausted and the demand for the goods is growing, a busy season's work is assured.

WHAT OTHERS SAY ABOUT US.

(From The Medicine Hat Times.) In the Presbyterian Church is the Christian number of the Redcliff Review recently to hand. The front is a handsome and attractive design portraying the interior of a happy Canadian home at Christmas time. On the inside front is a cheery Christmas message written for the Review by C. F. Jamieson. Mayor Bost also speaks a happy greeting to the citizens of Redcliff and contains a very optimistic picture of the outlook for Redcliff. The number gives great credit to the Review management and is well received by its many subscribers.

BIG INCREASE IN BUSINESS AT C.P.R. HERE

Earnings Show Marked Increase Over Last Year-- Grain Shipments Bigger Than Anticipated

Another evidence that conditions in town are quickly getting back to normal is the amount of business being done at the station at the present time, and the marked increase in the receipts for November this year. These receipts show an increase of over $5,000 on outgoing freight and $2,000 on incoming freight.

The shipments of brick, coal and rolled iron are increasing almost daily and there is no doubt that a much better showing will be made in the months ahead.

The shipments of grain, too, from this point are no doubt far exceeding the first estimates. So far between two hundred and fifty and three hundred thousand bushels have been shipped and it is probable that the total for the year will be in the neighborhood of one million. When it is remembered the farming in just in its infancy in the west, it is hardly in fact the first year that any grain has been shipped, the showing for the year is very favorable and warrants the prediction that in the very near future Redcliff will be well up to the top as a grain marketing point.

Second Appeal For The Patriotic Fund

Somewhat over a year ago, as president of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, I made an appeal to the people of the Dominion for funds to assist the families of the gallant men who were going to the front. Though anticipated response was not so hearty as I had hoped for, the magnificent manner in which the call was met. Montes was pointed out the necessity of the fund until the total contributions have reached and exceeded six million dollars.

Larger, however, as this sum appears, it has not greatly exceeded current demands and, if peace were declared in the immediate future, the entire surplus on hand would be required before all the men of the Expeditionary Force could again return home.

Today there are 25,000 families, comprising, it is estimated, 80,000 individuals dependent upon the Patriotic Fund.

With further recruiting the demands upon the fund will be each succeeding month, continue to grow, so that it is estimated that, should the war continue during 1916, a sum amounting to some $8,000,000 and probably more will be required. This would, however, only mean $1 per head of the population for the people of Canada, and it is little indeed to ask of those who remain at home in comparison with the sacrifice in life and limb of those who are fighting in defence of the nation.

In spite of all the various calls that have been made for funds to aid our soldiers and sailors and the magnificent response to the Patriotic Fund cash and every case, I still feel assured that the warm hearts of all Canadians will respond to the further appeal to enable the Patriotic Fund to continue its splendid work during 1916 and take care of the families of those who are fighting for their Sovereign, the Empire and the Dominion, on the battlefields of Europe and on the high seas.

(Signed) ARTHUR, President, Canadian Patriotic Fund.

Rioting Continues In German Capital

Reliable information states that there has been fresh rioting in Berlin. The demonstrations are said to have been very violent than any previous outbreaks. Thousands, mostly women, paraded the streets, crying against the Kaiser, and shouting "for peace, for peace, for peace." They attempted to reach the office of the chancellor, but failed. The rioting was not without result, and will be met at last succeeded in dispersing the crowd.

"INDUSTRIAL CANADA" AND WAR INDUSTRIES

See Vindication of National Policy in Fact That Dominion is Turning Out War Materials

According to "Industrial Canada," in a recent issue, the fact is vindicated that Canada's national policy. The national manufacturers' journal explains its position in the following paragraphs:

Further vindication of the National Policy has been furnished by the present war. If we had followed the Free Trader's ideal in Canada and confined the energies of our people to agriculture and the production of raw material, we would not now have an industrial system with which to aid in the gigantic task of producing self-sufficient nations to overthrow the enemy. Our factories are busy turning out all kinds of military equipment for ourselves and our allies. If the National Policy had never been put in operation the industries of Canada would have been small, scattered, and almost at the mercy of their powerful competitors from abroad. This war has proved that a country which has no industrial system cannot defend itself successfully. A powerful belligerent can cut off importations and reduce to impotence an enemy which does not possess factories in which to make munitions. A country which is almost entirely agricultural must buy its weapons and supplies. If it cannot buy them its situation is deplorable. When the present war broke out, Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa, the four great self-governing Dominions which have built up industries spread around blind protective tariffs, immediately began to utilize their factories to supply their own forces and to supplement the overtaxed factories of the Motherland and also to create and organize new industries. The policy which produces such results should not be discarded.

LESSONS FROM AUSTRALIA

How the Boer and the War Tariff Has Helped Manufacturers There

According to a recent United States Bureau Commerce report, the effect of the tariff on the Australian shoe industry has been very marked. During the years from 1910 to 1913 the tariff Commission in its reports found that the imports have not averaged more than about 10 per cent. of the total requirements of the industry. It is true that in 1913 the percentage of imports slightly increased, but this was due to the fact that the tariff Commission in its report made the increased consumption caused by immigration, and to the fact that local manufacturers had not been able to extend sufficiently to keep up with the increased demand. There is also difficulty with respect to securing skilled labor.

It is interesting to know that the duty on imported boots and shoes from the United Kingdom is 50 per cent. and from the United States 15 per cent. On the top of this are the costs of importing, which average 10 per cent. and the cost of the material, which is 10 per cent. for landed values make the total protection against the United Kingdom 65 per cent. against the United States 65 per cent. It should be noted that the Canadian tariff on boots and shoes is under normal conditions 25 per cent. and with the addition of the war tax is only 30 to 35 per cent. No doubt the measure of protection enjoyed by the Australian manufacturer would be regarded as very high in Canada, but the fact remains that it has secured for the Australian workman and manufacturer the bulk of the home market. When every one can find employment at good wages the disposition to criticize the means by which this condition is secured is not very great. It is apparent, too, from the report referred to that the boots and shoe manufacturers of Australia, as a whole, are satisfied with the existing tariff, and are not clamoring for more. The same condition is true in Canada. The Canadian manufacturer being content for the most part with the amount of protection he now enjoys.

A Chameleon of Gains

Hellshire is the newest gem, and it differs from all others in its remarkable ability of changing color. Hellshire is a brand-new discovery. He was accidentally unearthed by German prospectors searching for other precious stones in Germany. He was a no one knew what the gem was when it was first brought to light, but it did not take long to learn that they had found a new star to the bright firmament of gems. Samples of the new gem were sent to the Kaiser, and he was delighted with them. He had seven hellshire stones set with diamonds and pearls made into a cross for the Emperor. The gem has a dominating color of halloides in day time is a brilliant golden yellow. In artificial light it is a brilliant green. In semi-darkness it shines like a diamond.

Borden the First Imperial Statesman

When Sir Robert Borden sat in council with the British Cabinet, it was a definite recognition of Canada's status as a nation. Sir Robert Borden was the first statesman from the Overseas Dominion to have such an honor conferred upon him. That it is evident an Imperial Constitution will be the result is indicated by this statement made in the British Parliament last week by the Under-Secretary for the Colonies.

It is intended to take the responsible Ministers of the Colonies into our confidence in regard to every matter during the war, and also matters which may arise at the end of the war on the question of settlement of the land in the Overseas Dominion. Sir Robert Borden was present at the Imperial Conference here to that or to further developments in that direction on the part of the British Government. He should not be involved in the action. I think it is a lack of analysis or of imagination. I cannot imagine the Department being further involved in European politics than they are at present by their voluntary action.

The British statesman and Canadian statesman the Empire has added Imperial statesman. Sir Robert Borden is the first Imperial statesman from the Overseas Dominion. He has seen the consummation of his policy and policy—Canada a part of the Empire instead of a ward of Great Britain.

Customs' Revenue Shows an Increase

July Customs revenue amounted to $7,459,531, or $433,219 more than the corresponding period last year. At July, 1914, was an anti-bulldozer month it is evident that the new tariff designed to check the decline in revenue have been successful. So far the revenue decline has been between months during the war this year and last, but the war has not been a success in ocean transportation facilities had not been interrupted. August returns will show the first consecutive increase between months in the last five years. For the remaining eight months of the present fiscal year, the revenue will be a very substantial increase in revenue will be shown over the corresponding period in the last fiscal year. Beginning in September, 1914, the revenue declined very rapidly owing to the disruption in transatlantic freight due to the war, and the uncertainty of the business situation. A return to normal conditions will show an increase in revenue and the July figures clearly indicate that the import trade is being rapidly re-established.

A Worthy Cause That Needs Money

Very generous have been the contributions to the various funds that have been created to assist our soldiers and their dependents. To the patriotic fund used to assist the dependents of those doing service in the Canadian army many millions have been contributed and for a supply of machine guns the response has been wonderful.

There is another worthy cause—probably the most entitled to support—of the Government's provision to care for our sick and wounded returning from service. Many public-spirited citizens are contributing to the fund at the disposal of the Government, and to those will the returned soldiers until their health is fully recovered. But although the Government's provision for this work is ample, and the persons be met, it is not sufficient. There will be many cases where further relief will be required.

If the Government could supplement the amount raised by voluntary collectors, it could supplement the amount raised by voluntary collectors, it could supplement the amount raised by voluntary collectors.
